FROM THE KERLAN FRIENDS PRESIDENT

GREETINGS!

The Kerlan Friend's 2005-2006 year culminated with two events. The first event was a "Kerlan Friends Only" luncheon with Chase Lecturer, Barry Moser. Members enjoyed a casual and informative conversation about his career as an illustrator. The second event was the Kerlan Friends' Professional Development Day on July 28, attended by 24 enthusiastic participarticipants liberally peppered their feedback with "WONDERFUL!" and "EXCELLENT!" Participants appreciated the "wealth of materials (drafts, lists, letters between the author and editor) from books" and how these donated materials "really showcase the value of the Kerlan Collection." The major Kerlan Friends' project for 2006-2007 is "Book Art 2007", a silent auction, on Tuesday, June 19, 2007. MARK this date on your calendar now! The auction will feature gifts from nationally and internationally known authors/illustrators' such as autographed first edition books, drawings, studies, sketches, and much more. "Book Art 2007" will follow the Chase Lecture by Caldecott winner, Emily Arnold McCully. She and Minnesota's own Newbery winning author, Kate DiCamillo are the honorary chairs for "Book Art 2007". June 19, 2007 promises to be a spectacular day not to be missed. Thank you to Martha Davis Beck, Lee Galda, Steve Palmquist, Becky Rapport, Cathy Zemke and the CLRC staff for all of their work on this project .
